

Virtual Resource Library

for substance use

Free, interactive digital archive including resources, education, training, and guidance. Virtual resource libraries are a creative tool to engage diverse audiences with evidence-based, up-to-date information and practices.

Explore interactive rooms with multimedia overdose prevention and response education resources

Intended Audience

- Community Members
 - People Who Use Drugs (PWUD)
 - Family members and friends
 - Anyone prescribed opioids
 - Potential bystanders
- Public Safety Partners
 - First responders
 - Corrections
 - Law enforcement
 - Justice systems
- Medical and Behavioral Health Providers

Visit the Virtual Resource Library

cdh.idaho.gov/hl-rx-drugs

DRUG OVERDOSE
PREVENTION PROGRAM